

Keeneland (Paperback)

By Alyson Hagy

SIMON SCHUSTER, United States, 2002. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. From award-winning writer Alyson Hagy comes a novel set at Kentucky's Keeneland racetrack, where the horses run for glory and people stake love and money -- all to win at the sport of kings. Hagy, a compelling storyteller who has the same way with language as her characters have with animals (San Jose Mercury News), introduces Kerry Connelly, a skilled exercise rider who hasn't yet learned that liking a horse doesn't make it faster but loving one means genuine risk. Kerry -- who can hardly remember a day she hasn't put sweat in the saddle -- is more or less healthy, more or less single, and technically broke. She's come back to home turf, the sweet Kentucky bluegrass of Keeneland, one step ahead of her estranged husband, Eric. A trainer fueled by drugs and money dreams, he's got control of Kerry's champion mare, Sunsquall, and has New York loan sharks after them all. Keeneland may not be much of a haven, as Kerry's shadowy past has not been forgotten. Some people on the...
