UNAPOLOGETICALLY HUMAN

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Enter the mind, emotions and experiences of a boy on a confounding journey toward manhood. It seems like a simple process, but life proves that the metamorphosis from infancy to adulthood is far more complicated than any of us care to acknowledge. Follow Roman as he takes you through the jungle of obstacles he encounters: parents, drugs, alcohol, poor decisions and most dangerous of all--the struggle within himself. This is a book written with brutal sincerity about common life issues that are at present, all too often regarded as normal. The author explores how this worldly belief is a pitfall, and how the very similar repression of his own painful beginnings led to a burgeoning malaise in his later years. As you read you will finally come to the understanding that this is less a story about the author than it is a story about all of us.
