Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Two Sermons Preached in the Church of the Unity: April 23, 1865 We did not know how much we loved that good man, nor how much confidence we had reposed in him, until the fearful certainty of our loss assured us. Was ever public officer so sincerely mourned before ? Every home of the North will drop its tear of genuine sorrow upon his grave; for mothers sent their boys to do the dreadful work of war all the more willingly because our Commander-in-Chief was so prudent, careful, and thoughtful; every hamlet will learn the lesson of the hour from its draped pulpit, when the preacher will tell how fell the unsullied patriot from the affections of the whole people into the bosom of immortal life; every city, from where the Atlantic wave moans its sorrows to the rising sun, to where the Pacific sighs out its grief to the sinking orb, testifies its respect and love for the great man, by those emblems which sadly decorate every public building, if not every private residence,...
