The God of the Bible has defined holiness, but it is not what we have been told that true holiness is. Where does that leave those who try to live the way the Almighty describes? We have churches, synagogues, holidays, traditions and holy tools and techniques. But are they really holy to our Creator? In Acts chapter 2 of the Bible, the Holy Spirit came upon the disciples of Messiah who waited for Him. Over 3,000 people were indwelt that day. Many believe that was the end of the moving of the Holy Spirit. But today the Father's same Spirit is still operating! His desire is to fill us with His presence and to empower us in our daily walk of faith and action. Learn from a true Hebrew Roots perspective, without religion but with the full power of the Holy Spirit, what it takes to be more holy as you prepare to be filled with the Holy Spirit not only in the season of Pentecost/Shavuot, but today and every day! When covenanted believers are filled with the Holy Spirit, their life is transformed into the most amazing life possible. The Father loves all of His children. But many are not walking in the true power of the Holy Spirit because either they don't believe He is moving today or because they follow a different gospel that has no covenant power. Learn the true gospel of the Kingdom of YeHoVaH and how to walk in His Spirit as He has longed for us to do since the days of the Garden of Eden. 10 Easy Steps To True Covenant...
