REVIEWS: Both the present and past president of the California Carpet Cleaning Institute have endorsed this book. Ralph Naders Cal-Perg organization recommended this book. Author Comments: Carpeting in the average home is the third most expensive investment that the average homeowner undertakes. This book is designed to save you from making expensive mistakes in your carpeting decisions. Written by an expert in the industry, this book tells you how carpets are made and how you can avoid making big purchasing mistakes and how to care for the carpet once you get it. Back Cover Copy: These days nearly everyone has carpet in his or her home and you probably do too. Wall to wall carpet is as common today as a car in the driveway or a television set in the living room. After a home and an automobile it is the third most expensive investment made in your lifetime. The majority of people today know very little about this expensive investment. The sad truth is that less than one percent of the population knows enough about carpeting to make the proper choice of purchase, or even the best method of cleaning. Ten years of research into consumer floor covering problems has made author Robert L. Selby one of the most knowledgeable men in his field. His experiences with home owners, renters, real estate and property management firms have brought into focus the tremendous lack of knowledge that the consumer has in regard to their floor covering. , he also has uncovered widespread fraud, incompetence and deceptive advertising by carpet retailers and so-called professional carpet cleaners. Ten years of research into consumer floor covering problems has made author Robert L Selby one of the most knowledgeable men in...
