Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Hours With Men and Books Among all the charmed names of modern English literature, is there probably any other English author whose works are read and re-read with such feelings of delight, wonder, and admiration as those of De Quincey? Glancing over the books that are books on his shelves, each the precious life-blood of a master-spirit, the purest efficacy and extraction of that living spirit that bred them, does the scholar's eye rest on any with which it would cost him a keener pang to part, than with the writings of this great magister-sententiarum, this Aquinas-richter, this arohdreamer of dreams, the Opium Eater? Read wherever the English language is spoken, he is by universal acknowledgment the most powerful and versatile master of that tongue in our time, - the acutest, and at the same time the most gorgeous and eloquent writer of English prose in the nineteenth century. Where, in the entire range of our later literature, will you find an intellect at once so solid and so subtle, so enormous learning conjoined with such power of original thinking, so daring, eccentric wit and grotesque fun with such sharpness and severity of style? Whatever the subject he discusses, whether the character-of the Caesars or the Aristocracy of England, Homer and the Homeridae, or Nielsens System of the Heavens, - Lessings Laocoon, or the English corn-laws, - War, or Murder considered as one of the Fine Arts, Casuistry, or Dinner, Real and Reputed, - Miracles, or Secret Societies, Logic, Political Economy.
