In the Mind s Eye: The Blinded Veterans of St Dunstan s (Hardback)

By David Castleton

Pen Sword Books Ltd, United Kingdom, 2014. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Discover the stories of the men and women who sacrificed their sight for their country. Since 1915 St Dunstan s (now Blind Veterans UK) has helped thousands of war-blinded men and women to rejoin society and live their lives to the full. This compelling book includes new research from the St Dunstan s archive and previously untold stories of the people, both blind and sighted, involved in the charity during the First and Second World Wars. St Dunstan s was founded by Sir Arthur Pearson, a blind press baron determined to prove that the blind could make a valuable contribution to society. Early St Dunstaners played football against Arsenal; learned to read braille, type, row and even shoot; and trained for new careers as masseurs, carpenters, switchboard operators and gardeners. As PR officer at St Dunstan s for 35 years, David Castleton worked with many of the men and women whose stories he tells in his book, and provides a unique insight into their achievements. Meet irreplaceable Tommy Milligan, who lost his sight just months after enlisting on his eighteenth birthday, and Ian Fraser,...
