She has just taken her dream job as the District Attorney in Savannah, Georgia. She is worried about the distance between her and her tight-knit family since she hasn't spent much time too far away from them in fifteen years; however, she needs a change. Once there, she is introduced to the dreamy Gabriel Haden who is her boarder until her home is ready for move-in. She spends the entire first night trying to figure out why she is naturally drawn to him when she hasn't had any interest in any man in years. Then she is informed that her job is not what it seems. She has been hurled into the middle of a city in the throes of turmoil due to gang violence and drug deals gone bad. She knows she can't do it alone, but how is she going to clean up Savannah by herself? Gabriel Haden is taken aback when he opens his front door to Andrea Bell, his new boss and a woman he knows he can love. But Gabriel has a secret past that includes Andrea and she has no clue. He knows she has a long, hard road ahead of her and wants to help, but how to do so without compromising himself? See if Andrea and Gabriel can come together to save Savannah from itself and possibly find each other in the process. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
