Excerpt from A Calendar of the Court Minutes, Etc of the East India Company 1660-1663 Frigate for Guinea and Bantam (in Java). As the Commissioners of Customs refused to allow bullion to be shipped without special authority, an order was obtained for the export of treasure to the amount of (pp. 4, The question of planting Pulo Run - tho island in the Bandas which the Dutch, by the Treaty of Westminster, had undertaken to restore to the English - had been revived in January, but on the 23rd of that month it was decided that it was too late to do anything that season. On the 5th of the same month, the Advice, one of the ships sent out in May, 1658, reached Plymouth from Bantam. In February, 1660, the Committees were disturbed by the news that certain private merchants were fitting out the Anne and yoyce for dispatch to Bantam, and a month later it was learnt that the promoters of the enterprise had petitioned the Council of State, who had referred the application to a committee. Representations were at once...

Reviews

Thorough manual for ebook fans. it had been writtern quite properly and valuable. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
