No friends, no fun, no life as he knows it. Fat chance. That very first night, the peculiar Alesone and her more peculiar little brother Peter crawl out of Colt's closet, begging for his help to save their family from a horrible fate. Fortunately, the secret for doing so is hidden inside a mysterious book. Unfortunately, this book demands that our ragged trio first journey across Scotland and capture three treasure treasures fiercely protected by a shadowy, treacherous world determined to see Colt fail preferably by death. But if Colt and his new friends can survive a horror novel come-to-life, defeat a madman and his minions, win over a disagreeable folklore legend, and discover the shocking reason why Alesone and Peter are just so odd well, the next two treasures won't come so easily.
