La valse des ombres: The Waltz of Shadows (French Edition)

By Faten Gharbi

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 108 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.3in. Illustration in color by the poets, this collection of English and French poetry is a first collaboration by the poets Benjamin Cusden of Great Britain and Faten Gharbi France. A collaboration of poems that are presented here in their original form and are also translated into the national language of another poet. Benjamin Cusden's poetry is naturally English (UK) and Faten Gharbi's poetry is naturally French (France). Life, love and death dance the waltz of shadows in this collection of poetry that haunts the edges of our lives and our spirits. It hides the lights of the day and exists in a world of shadows always in motion. Love in its many forms and disguises; loss and a new hope; the end of innocence and the fragility of the human spirit are all in the pages of this collection in motion. The poets are introspective, looking deeply into themselves and exploring layers of experience, feelings, thoughts and beliefs. These poems are written with their true feelings...
