Floricanto Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 186 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.4in. x 0.6in. The Secret of a Long Journey is the story of a cherished and dangerous secret, passed along from generation to generation through many lands and many perils: from Spain to Flanders across the ocean to Vera Cruz and up through the desert to what is now New Mexico. In magical realist style, this chronicle takes the characters through the terrors of the Inquisition, shipwrecks and hurricanes, sandstorms and wars, lost loves and illness, all culminating when Lois Gold, a passionate court advocate for the disenfranchised, discovers the legacy of her lost grandfather. In The Secret of a Long Journey, Snchez moves effortlessly through time and place with a mesmerizing plot. Generations come and go and each one propels the next. Her fascinating characters are solidly grounded in vivid natural or urban environments. Whether it is 16th century Flanders or 20th century Denver, you never lose the thread of the story, thanks to the authors mastery of craft and her powerful imagination. The characters will lodge in your mind long after youve read the book . . . Gloria DeVidas Kircheimer, author: Goodbye Evil Eye, and Amalie in Orbit. Sandra Shwayder Snchez explores in intimate detail the experiences and emotions of her characters as she takes the reader on a vividly imagined journey from the old world to the new, through history to modern times. In poetic prose that summons all of our senses, Snchez creates and maintains unique voices that speak through the generations and the blending of cultures and faiths. Linda LeBlanc, author Beyond the Summit. The Secret of a Long Journey is a lyrical, textured, beautifully told tale of lives lived and lost and secrets kept and shared. This mesmerizing page-turner takes readers on a journey...
