The two Boca detectives get far more than they had bargained for in the way of action, adventure, and near death. It turns out to be even less a holiday than their recent adventure in Casablanca. They smell drug smuggling in the most improbable place. The ghost of a long dead nemesis is very much alive and dangerous. Friend Ina turns out to be a far different person than they thought her to be. They learn of a Russian plan to destabilize Lithuania and do their usual part to save the world.
