We live in an age. is the information age. information flow is the most valuable thing of this era. it covers almost every corner of the world. In such an era. the language is even more important. especially in today s rapid economic development period. between China and other countries are becoming increasingly close. English as the language of the most important communication tool. but also more and more people attention. However. if you have experienced this scenario: eager to see the foreigners wanted to communicate with each other to improve the level of spoken language. so the standard classic dialogue blurted out: Hi. Nice to meet. You. How are you? I m fine. Thank you. and you? next rack their brains to think and chat with other foreigners the problem. but I could not find the proper English to express. anxious. can only let this golden opportunity to exercise in anxious impatience spoken in the slip. The main reason for the above phenomenon is that we usually only read books. and want to blurted out is not so easy. Some people spend a lot of time. and blindly back a lot of words. but most of the words usually do not have access. there are many words with the right occasion. it sounds not authentic. so we d better remember the sentence in accordance with the scene in practical note. while the word. To help the majority of English fans to find better and more suited to their learning. improve the level of spoken English. we have prepared this high-frequency spoken English subject line series.
