

Within Miracle's Envelope: The Spirits Within Us (Paperback)

By Angela Wilkerson

Createspace, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This book of inspirational short stories is an extraordinary book written to inspire one's faith in God, to see God working in the lives of others, and to uplift one's spirit by recognizing that God has control over all things. The main character within the contents of this book is Miracle, who within herself, being a miracle, does not know how to accept that she will receive a gift from God, in which, there is a turn of events before she receives her gift. The beauty of the emotions flowing around and throughout this incredible story is overwhelming. Experience the captivating moments of spiritual gifts, miracles, praises, and prayers going on in the life of others, while listening to the many spirits tell each of us their purpose in one's life. The stories will make you cry, laugh, and believe someone knows what you have experienced in life and/or felt in your lifetime. Although situations contained within the contents of this book may reflect on some of the reader's personal life experiences, this book is based upon fictional characters...
