Memorials of Old Birmingham: Men and Names, Founders, Freeholders, and Indwellers, from the Thirteenth to the Sixteenth Century; With Particulars as to the Earliest Church of the Reformation Built and Endowed in England

By Toulmin Smith

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Memorials of Old Birmingham: Men and Names, Founders, Freeholders, and Indwellers, From the Thirteenth to the Sixteenth Century; With Particulars as to the Earliest Church of the Reformation Built and Endowed in England Men whose names we know not, can have but a hazy existence in the most vivid imagination. There were brave men before Agamemnon; but we know Agamemnon, while the others have, for us, no existence. I propose to re-people the Birmingham of the Olden time and to make some of the men and women who lived in it known to the men and women of to-day, very many of whom are the lineal offspring of those old worthies whom I shall now recall. For I am not about to fill Birmingham with imaginary people. The men and the names that I shall bring up were, every one of them, once alive in and a part of Birmingham. They are, all of them, among those recorded either in the ancient documents that have come to me from my own forefathers, Birmingham men, or in what I have...
