Daisy Harriette Tina Anne Heisler. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 38 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 4.8in. x 0.2in. SYNOPSIS Packets of Seeds This is a book for anyone curious about life after death or with questions about what it is like to die. It is also for people in grief over the loss of a loved one or that someone may have a terminal illness. Kehnroth Schramm, M. D. passed away September 24, 2004 but Ken continues to be a teacher and a physician. He has given us the gift of his latest findings that life does continue. He has given us this little book Packets of Seeds (named by him) that describes what it is like to die and what is important in our lives. A true story in this book called The Healing happened on the first anniversary after Ken passing. The person, who had a near death experience and physicians in the hospital were preparing him to die, suddenly woke up from a coma and identified Ken as the spirit healer. In life on earth, Kehnroth Schramm was a Family Physician, Psychiatrist, Teacher, Father, Grandfather, Great Grandfather, Fire keeper, and Husband. I resolved never to make money at the expense of another persons suffering. For me Doctor means Teacher, not businessman. I was called to heal and be healed by words, not by money. Kehnroth Schramm, M. D. No truer words were ever said. Doctor Schramm lived those words. He was a true physician, always wanting to be available to those in need and he wanted nothing to do with money except to use it to help those in need. Ken lived his life protecting his Hippocratic Oath to do no harm and to protect his patients secrets. He was always in search of better ways to do...
