By Steven M Goad

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Life is filled with unseen twists and turns and the lives of the James family is no different. Ben and Jenny James are a young couple raising their two boys on the family farm. Life seemed perfect until their youngest son, Alex, is lost in a tragic farming accident. Ben, a proud and honorable man, retreats within himself contemplating why God could have abandoned his family; while Jenny wraps her arms around her faith and holds on tightly, searching for a way to reach Ben. Tucker, their oldest son, is left to himself as his parents try to find their way back to what was once a loving relationship. He leans on his two best friends, Sam and Charley, to fill the emotional holes created by the loss of his brother and the changing relationship between his struggling parents. The three friends step up to the challenge of tangling with the town bullies, culminating in a final showdown that inadvertently unlocks hidden feelings as well as the unbreakable bonds between the three. In between their misadventures, Tucker becomes engrossed in his mysterious...
