

Piano ABCs - Level One: Beginning at the Beginning

By Beverly Grace Joy

Createspace. Paperback. Condition: New. Francois Arnaud (illustrator). This item is printed on demand. 90 pages. Dimensions: 11.0in. x 8.5in. x 0.2in. Piano ABCs innovative and logical approach to note reading enables students to accomplish in one book what other methods typically do in multiple books. Plus, each level facilitates a more advanced level of learning and playing than most other current popular method books. This is a unique, patented beginner piano method endorsed by nationally-acclaimed piano pedagogues. Learning to read notes (letter names) is very easy. Rhythmic instruction integrates physical and intellectual activities as well as writing easily understood proportional graphic symbols to facilitate conceptual development. Attractive pieces have been composed with the student in mind, and Francois Arnauds engaging illustrations will stimulate students artistic imaginations. The several streams of pedagogical categories introduced in Level One are continued and expanded in other levels throughout. If you are teaching Level One for the first time, be sure to check out Lesson Plans for Beginning Teachers of Beginning Pianists in which the author has given a wealth of information to facilitate the teaching of beginners. Even experienced teachers have lauded this as a very helpful resource to enhance their own professional expertise. For...
