Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Reply to the Memorandum of Queen s University Senate Regarding the Six Years Course in Medicine: February 9, 1917 A number of general objections to the proposal follow. Most of which, however, have been inet by what has been stated already with regard to the present practice in Britain and the other leading countries of the world. But it may be added in reply to (2) that in the judgment of this University the statement that six years academic work to acquire the MD. Degree will tend to force graduates into practice at once without serving as hospital internes will not be borne out by the facts. Already practically every student has had the opportunity to gain hospital experience as an interne. And it is certain that graduates will still seek such positions. One chief purpose of the change is to increase the hospital experience under direct clinical instruction.
