Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Illio, 1909 Although he has been a member of the University community but eight years, few men have become more closely identified with the real life of the University than Colonel F echet. No man is a more loyal supporter of the institution than he or has a stronger hold upon the student heart. Colonel Fechet had had a long and honorable career as a soldier before coming to the University. He was but seventeen years old when, in 1861, he enlisted as a private soldier in the Seventh Michigan Infantry. He wasat once made a sergeant, and at the time of his discharge in 1865 he held the rank of First Lieutenant. He was given the rank of Brevet First Lieutenant and Brevet Captain March 2, 1867, for gallant and meritorious service at the battle of Antietam, Maryland, September 17, 1862. He was made First Lieutenant of the 8th U. S. Cavalry, July, 1867, was promoted to the rank of Captain in May, 1870, and was made Major of the 6th Cavalry, April 20, 1891, which rank he held...
