Excerpt from Lessons About Salvation: From the Life and Words of the Lord Jesus, Being a Second Series of Plantation Sermons The obligation incurred by the white man thus to help his servants toward Christ and heaven, need not be enlarged upon here. Abler pens than mine have treated largely of these duties. Presbyteries are yearly sending down pastoral letters to the churches, urging the work upon them, and pastors are more boldly and practically pressing it from the pulpit and by the wayside. Let me rather avail myself of this prefatory page to offer a few hints to those who seek to be faithful in this matter.
