

Chasing Fate

By Clara M. Miller

Virtualbookworm.com Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 338 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 5.9in. x 1.0in. In Chasing Fate, the adventures of the Quigley Family continue. The events cover the time period of 1980 through 1989. The younger generation has grown up and is expected to don the mantle passed on by the older members of the family, making many younger members trembling for fear they won't measure up. A new menace arises in the form of a triple-demonic being called the Atrax. Each of those threatened by this abomination are surprised at their lack of fear and they begin to think that maybe they are Quigleys after all. Another character enters the scene as Matthew Angeli, son of not one but two powerful Beings: Michael the Archangel and Lucifer, the former Prince of Hell, matures and heads toward the same goal as Mawdie and Carissa: being a doctor. He, too, is visited by the Atrax and dismisses them by threatening to call one of his fathers. Like the Quigleys, he is surprised that he's not frightened by the apparition. Ultimately, Matthew joins Mawdie and Carissa in the clinic in which he's always planned to work. There, a confrontation takes place that requires the...

Reviews

Basically no terms to clarify. It is actually written in basic terms rather than confusing. I found out this ebook from my dad and I suggested this book to find out.
