InterVarsity Press, United States, 2002. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Paul Tokunaga writes in The Power of Friendship, God came into my life through a person, a warm and compassionate friend who gently wore down a hard, insecure, insensitive shell until I was ready to understand God's love for me . . . then loved me and loved me and has never stopped loving me. As Tokunaga describes his decades-long friendship with Gary Fischer, he shows that their relationship was more than an occasion for evangelism. Rather, it has been since their meeting in 1969 a growing, encouraging and challenging relationship that has changed both men in significant ways. In this IVP Booklet, Tokunaga calls you, too, to become a Gary --a person used by God to touch and transform the life of another, a friend.
