

The Vanishing Acts Almanac (Paperback)

By Olde Smiddy

Vanishing Acts, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Vanishing Acts Almanac, an A-Z handbook about the ones who were pushed off the 1980 s music stage. A time inhabited by hundreds of flesh and blood bands that lost their way. Destroying suburban bungalows. Making music. Occasionally having their stomachs pumped. Gigging every night. Across the city. Lunatics. Virtuosos. Repeat offenders. Original musicians representing a wide range of styles. Inventing styles. .Following a late night gig in 2012, I was fortunate enough to be handed a scruffy manila folder. Inside was a document titled The Vanishing Acts Almanac. The original author of this work, a live music eccentric on the Melbourne circuit not sighted since the late 1980 s, is (or was) Pembroke Pemmy O Hear. A tall man who sought no company and despised the saxophone, he was also known around town as Phantom Pemmy and Pemmy the Dead. Pemmy s car was found abandoned at the Todd Road Exit service station at the entry to the West Gate Bridge in 2010. His car was unlocked. The words Never adjust your heart cut into the steering wheel. The Vanishing Acts Almanac...
