SMOKING IN BATHROOMS: A JOSH DOUGHERTY ADVENTURE (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A unique story written by a unique young man. Come see the world through the eyes of Josh Dougherty. Based on actual events, Dougherty will show you the heartbeat of modern America through his hilarious and uproarious adventures. Beginning in Philadelphia at the Mummer s Parade and moving as far west as a brewery in Denver, you will be introduced to a whole host of characters that will make you laugh out loud and cry; often at the same time. Like an artist, Muldoon uses paper as his canvas to unroll his truly original tale. A modern day Don Quixote with sideburns, Dougherty writes about his experiences from such unique places as the backseat of a greyhound bus, bar stools in corner taverns and behind home plate in a rural Pennsylvania softball league. Muldoon stays constantly on the move and a lover of old movies he gives a visceral account of the United States that is romantic, tragic and truly unforgettable. A page turner you will not be able to put down, you ll find yourself rooting for this wannabe writer and want in on his next adventure as soon as you finish reading.
