Excerpt from Military Chaplains Review, Vol. 2 Many changes in leadership style are taking place in the Army. We are not going to know for some time how much lasting improvement will result. The process of this great transformation is not so much that of learning new lessons as it is of relearning old ones. If we are to be taken seriously, we must be sure that we are not merely changing a style, but that there is also a sincere desire and will for positive, substantive change.
