CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 210 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. Egypt was an important society in the building of many of those around it after the Pleistocene Extinction. As such, we need to understand more about it than we thought we knew. This book looks at the interfaces with Babylon, Undal, Scythia, Ireland, Gaul, Israel, Amalek, Libya, and Nubia. We look at the 20 rulers named Moses, the friendship of the Jewish people and hatred of the Amalekites. We look at the union between King Solomon and the Nubians and how King Khendjer saved so many people. We look at the horrors of the Hyksos hand removal and baby killing; and we address some of the details of the Jewish Exodus that affected Egypt and the rest of the world. Besides all that the book builds a timeline to show how Ireland was influenced and conquered; how the Libyans were able to expand their control; and how the Anak people played a significant role in all of this. We will use histories, artifacts, timing analysis, DNA, religious documentation, and common sense to remove some of the questions about this important...
