The Way Out: Retracing Americas Steps to Find Our Future

By Bradford F. Whitman

Bradford Whitman. Paperback. Condition: New. 212 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. As Benjamin Franklin stepped out of the Pennsylvania Statehouse after a long, hot summer as senior delegate to the Constitutional Convention, he said to a bystander, We have given you a republic if you can keep it. In 2016, the evidence is clear that Americans have lost it. Bradford Whitman takes us on a carefully crafted, authentic journey in history and civics to retrieve stunningly foresighted advice from the Founders for rehabilitating the republic. He sets out the fundamental principles for our democratic republic. The second phase is to diagnose Americas disease as a physician would diagnose a patient. The key is to examine prior episodes of good health and functionality and the opposite. A pattern emerges of susceptibility to disease that is consistent with the predictions and the nature of the republic. In the process, as Whitman interweaves the past and the present, we come to know America and the people vividly enough to develop a way out consistent with the original plan and bolstered by modern experiments in democracy reform. Mr. Whitmans legal career, especially at the Justice Department in Washington in the 1970s, inspired and guided...
