Excerpt from Biennial Report of St. John s College, Annapolis, MD., To the General Assembly of Maryland: January 28th, 1874 Sir: - In accordance with custom, I have the honor respectfully to submit, through you, to the General Assembly of the State, my Report of the operations of St. John s College for the past two years, and of its present condition. The College was re-organized, after a suspension of five years, in 1866, and opened as a Preparatory School in September of that year. The following session a Freshman Class was formed, and one years studies were gradually added to the course, so that when I entered upon my duties here in October, 1870, I found the four Collegiate classes fully organized, and the College in complete working order, and in July, 1871, the degree of Bachelor of Arts was conferred upon the graduates for the first time in ten years. The former relations of the College to the State, and the particulars connected with its re-organization may be found in a Response of the Visitors and Governors to an order of the House, dated March 4th, 1867, [House Document H.H.] and in the Report of my predecessor, dated February 24th, 1868, [House Document V.] The condition of the College during the two sessions previous to 1872, and its wants at that time, are set forth in detail in my Report to the General Assembly of that year, dated January 26th, 1872, [House Document L.] About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
