When St Augustine reached his breaking point, calling out to God, he found that God does respond. God collapses time for St Augustine and sends to him Perpetua to relay His message. Perpetua tells St Augustine what so many of us today wonder - what is our purpose in life how will it affect our future? St Augustine discovers the role he plays in forming Christianity and its effect on future generations to come. St Augustine has many questions and these are addressed by Perpetua. When the time comes that the message from God seems to resonate with St Augustine, though he wants to ask more, Perpetua says her farewells and he fades back into the world he knows. What was the message? Did St Augustine listen and act on Gods message? How did St Augustine s decision affect you?.
