The Theophania Publishing Facsimile Collection This copy, published 1612. Great treasures were once kept by the very wealthy, and the very privileged. These books were brought to the public eye with great difficulty, each one typeset by hand, the letters often carved meticulously by a master craftsman, and the individual pieces of type skillfully inked by hand, each page pressed in a large printing press, the pages impressed with the strength of one or two men, whose sole job it was to produce a single print. With movable lead and wood type the prints-men would create a perfect copy, the pages laid out to dry, and folded by hand, sewn on a large wooden frame, and bound by another master craftsman, his apprentices working feverishly to create the most...

Reviews

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You wont feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).

-- Prof. Kirk Cruickshank DDS

This kind of book is every little thing and taught me to looking ahead of time and a lot more. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. I found out this book from my dad and i encouraged this pdf to find out.
