

They Say That I Am Broken (Paperback)

By Svann Langford

Outskirts Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . They Say That I Am Broken is an autobiographical work by Svann Langford. She is the founder and facilitator of the Cutter s support group, The Jeremiah Project, the first of its kind in Idaho. Svann s poignant past and matter-of-fact style lend the perfect voice of hope to the broken and down-trodden. They Say That I Am Broken chronicles young Svann s life as she is sent to live with a father she didn t know and left to fend for herself against abusive relationships, both sexual and physical in nature. After engaging in a lifestyle of drug and alcohol abuse, Svann felt rejected and alone. Ensuing lengthy stays in mental institutions and jail, she found herself at the feet of her savior. Active in ministry as a worship leader and facilitating a successful prison ministry, no one could know that just under the surface of a religious facade was a broken little girl. When a stay at a rehabilitation facility for narcotic addiction stirs up her inner-turmoil, Svann finds herself returning to the one thing that she knew would...
