Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This dynamic collection of poems and prose speak to the heart of abuse and rising up from its ashes. Rainna lays it out from deep within her soul and total being that encourages all women to honor their power, leave abuse when they have to, and offers inspiration for what's possible beyond the abuse. This short yet powerful book is a woman's soul song from out of the darkness into the light. -Charlynn Atiam Minister and Spiritual Counselor Using poetry as a form of storytelling, Rainna Kearney deeply engages the reader, as she takes you on her personal journey from the prison of domestic violence to a place of liberation and healing. The Freed Soul provides a list of valuable resources to aid people in abusive relationships, and it tells them: You are not alone, and the path to healing - while not easy - is well worth it. - Rebecca Pittenger, Ph.D. Reviews: This book touched my heart and soul more than any other book. Ms. Kearney describes her experience beautifully, and in living color. The abuse is followed by the hope and promise of healing for anyone in that situation. It is impressive how the author goes from the bottom of despair and hopelessness to forgiveness and love for others. It touched me deeply, and I highly recommend it to all women. It is a beacon to how to forgive and love for our own freedom. This is a very inspirational book that describes one woman's journey from abuse to freedom. She describes her experiences in ways that the reader can relate. I especially like her descriptions of the faith that helped to heal...
