Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Memorable National Epoch: Documents Issued by the Canadian Club of Halifax Respecting Nova Scotia and the Empire At the old Province Building in Halifax two weeks ago, His Honour the lieutenant-governor of Nova Scotia, before a large assemblage of citizens, unveiled a brass tablet commemorative of the origin of Parliamentary Government in the Province, a century and a half ago. A facsimile of the tablet is herewith submitted. From this it appears that the assembly of elected representatives met for the first time at Halifax on October 2nd, 1758. The records, which are carefully preserved among the provincial archives, establish that there have been meetings of the legislature each year continuously since that early date. The approaching semi-tercentenary on October 2nd of the present year is of peculiar interest to the citizens of Halifax and Nova Scotia. Moreover it stands out as a great landmark in the development of Canadian History. the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the origin of parliamentary government within the limits of the Dominion is indeed a national epoch of profound significance to every Canadian and to the people of the whole British world.
