The personal satisfaction connected with the performance of which duty, is only alloyed with a sense of personal unfitness for the task, and the regret that the choice had not fallen upon one better fitted for it. The peculiar duties connected with my profession, and the studies to which the ministers of Christ are mostly confined, not being such as to make them familiar with the works and the walks of the Mechanic or Inventor. Yet personally I must confess to a peculiar fondness for mechanical pursuits. The sharp edge of the well ground chisel has always shone before my eyes with a lustre more fascinating than that of the useless but ornamental diamond, whilst a well proportioned or...
