Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The fifth poetry collection by the Irish poet Vincent S. Coster, and here again we see him continuing in his mission to take up the baton that was left with the passing of his hero Seamus Heaney. In striving to become the poetic voice of his nation he has put together a collection of poetry that deals with the personal issues of the individual, while looking at the problems of religious violence, and the plight of migrants trying to leave their country to live in Europe. There are poems about the personal relationships going wrong, memories from childhood, and other topics which make his work one of the must read poetry by one of Ireland s finest poets. These are 35 poems that you will be glad you read.
