Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 75: November 27, 1913 My feeling, my earnest desire for good, is stronger than ever. It grows with age. I see more clearly to-day than ever before, the end of my mission in the world; that my time is growing shorter. I reflect upon the past, and often wonder how much of the valuable time the Lord has allotted me in this life, have I wasted in folly and useless things; and how much of it have I employed in that which was essential to my salvation, to my growth and development in the knowledge of God and in the understanding of His truth? I assure you that while it is true that, for the most part of my life, I have been engaged in this ministry, in the work of the Lord, to the best of my understanding, and the ability that the Lord has given me, when I look back upon my life I can see much wasted time, many unimproved moments, numerous things that I have engaged in that were comparatively, at least, unnecessary and hurtful rather than beneficial, and yet nothing that was seriously wrong.
