

Carbon Capture and Storage in Developing Countries: A Perspective on Barriers to Deployment

By Natalya Kulichenko, Eleanor Ereira

World Bank Publications. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW PRINT ON DEMAND., Carbon Capture and Storage in Developing Countries: A Perspective on Barriers to Deployment, Natalya Kulichenko, Eleanor Ereira, Carbon Capture and Storage (CCS) technology could provide a technological bridge for achieving near to midterm GHG emission reduction goals. Integrated CCS technology is still under development and has noteworthy challenges, which would be possible to overcome through the implementation of large-scale demonstration projects. In order to assist developing countries to better understand issues related to potential technology deployment, there is a need to start analyzing various numerous challenges facing CCS within the economic and legal context of developing countries and countries in transition. This report is the first effort of the World Bank Group to contribute to a deeper understanding of (a) the integration of power generation with CCS technologies, as well as their costs; (b) regulatory barriers to the deployment of CCS; and (c) global financing requirements for CCS and applicable project finance structures involving instruments of multilateral development institutions. This report does not provide prescriptive solutions to overcome these barriers, since action must be taken on a country-by-country basis, taking account of different circumstances and national policies. Individual...
