

Almost Mine (Paperback)

By Clifford R. Ward Jr.

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2005. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .During the course of independent Bible, Bible Prophecy, and Biblical history research the question kept popping up, why not tell Lucifer s life story. Since he was the first of all created creatures and intelligent beings called into existence, surly he began his life in a state of absolute innocence. And in the evolution of time his character under went change in the same manner as does ours do from the moment of our birth. The difference between our growth years and his time of growth is a matter of parental and friendship influence that are of a fallen nature. Lucifer was surrounded by beings loyal to the Creator and the Creator was his teacher. Lucifer had no excuse for his course of action and he had no example to follow in disobedience. Therefore his rebellion was an invention that materialized from out of his own heart. He is not only the father of lies he is also the inventor of games. Like the people of this world who spend a great deal of their time playing all types of games so did...
