

The Mystical Life of the Dog with Three Legs

By Emma Greyling

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 236 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. When a racing greyhound becomes ill she is abandoned by her racing kennels. She finds herself scratching a hard living on the streets. A former cruel owner catches sight of her when he visits the town. She knows that she must escape from him. The dog runs from the town and wanders wearily along a road which leads her to Humpty's door. Humpty is a kind man who has spent many years with only the birds and animals of the fields and woods for company. He and the dog are amazed to find that they can understand each other's speech. Humpty asks the dog to share his life. The dog soon realizes that she has found love and her forever home with Humpty. On their very first outing together a frightening incident with a wild boar leads to a new friendship with a cantankerous old parrot who defends the dog from the wild beast. The threesome sets out on many adventures together after finding a magic sword on a haunted island. The sword tells them of its life in the sixteenth century and of its need to establish the...
