Health and vigor marked my visage, Ever feeling gay and bright; Oh! It really seemed that I was Never tired from morn till night. When the genial spring came forward, Oh, it was a time for fun, To see my father tap the trees, And see the maple fluid run. This to me was sweet enjoyment, All us children liked such times; When the saccharine was boiling, Then our eyes began to shine. I was rugged, stout, and healthy, While some others were quite thin, So my father often took me Out to gather sap with him. This to me was sport and pleasure; I could make the woods resound, Often mocking my own echo; Great delight in...
