Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Chatsworth s Women is a continuation of Cicely s Deflowering Ritual , a story about a population of people who live in the shadows and have no documents to make them count as citizens of any country. Some live deep in forests as near cavemen. Others have relatives who can go into town because they pass as general population. Others have to hide in the shadows or some get to the Summerhaven Camp where they can live as they are used to living but their children can go to school, Relatives who have been living white are offered free college in Summerhaven and encouraged to become involve with their roots and perhaps help work toward getting the clan ready for when something happens that forces them to come out of the shadows and become part of the mainstream world. When Mecante employee Arnold Chatsworth was interviewed after the rescue of the kidnapped woman, he explained that his job included much more than crisis negotiation. it s not often you need to talk a monster out of a cave, he said, but how often do you need a gross of pencils or a new stapler, or someone to refill the water cooler? You want anything like that, you got to see me. The following is a transcript of his talk with Roy who had been lured out of the cave and chained inside a cage: Angela go to your boy and make him feel safe -the helicopter ride is going to be fun! Roy, I am coming in to talk to you. Chatsworth walked into the cage with his clipboard. My name is Chatsworth and I represent Mecante and some good people...
