A DARK TALE OF BLOOD, POWER AND MAGIC Romantic, compelling and brimming with sexual tension Dark Moors will imprint on your mind and leave you with a thirst for more. She gave into his kiss, letting her body melt into his, becoming putty in his hands. She was his and he could do with her anything he willed. She kissed him deeply, passionately, fervently. It felt like their boundaries were fading, like they were no longer two people, two vampires, but one entity swirling with energy and power, connecting in lightness and darkness and desire. M. D. Bowden, Dark Moors (The Two Vampires, 4). Praise for books in THE TWO VAMPIRES series: This has been an amazing read so far . . . The author does an excellent job at drawing you in and making you really feel what the characters are feeling . . . This series is definitely worth spending your money on.
