photravel, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.San Francisco is a city of free and relaxed spirit, contrasts and conflicts, liberal views and traditional values, unusual past and wealthy present. It will never leave you indifferent. Indeed, everyone who has ever been to this city always wants to come back. What is it, San Francisco? It s a city of contrasts. Visiting the city for the first time you get surprised with the thick and dense fog. Early in the morning, as if it s a down quilt, the fog covers the whole city from the bottom to the top. In just a couple of hours the sun is raising and the air gets very hot. At the same time the ice cold wind comes from the ocean and makes you put a jacket on. Strolling down the street is not an easy thing to do. At first it seems that you are walking on the plain the next moment you feel like you are climbing a mountain. It s because of the landscape. San Francisco lies on the hills that slowly slide down to the valley. These contrasts are featured in everything - in architecture, food, and way of living. Modern minimalistic skyscrapers easily mix with the Victorian style historical monuments. It s a city of religion Having been founded by Spanish explorers, the city shows a lot of religious beginnings. At first San Francisco was a Dolores mission and then it became a city which was named after the beloved catholic saint Francisco de Asis. The hippie movement had its beginnings in this city during the 1920 s. The movement had a great impact on the lives of many generations after. The echo of hippie culture can still be observed...
