A POWER BEYOND HEAVEN (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.About The Story This book and its many chapters written, is a fictitious fantasy. The story is based on some actual live events, mixed with some dreams and visions. The main character of the story, is a man named Ron Balstrom. He is rather short, overweight and is losing his hair. Ron is just an ordinary man with an ordinary low-paying job as a warehouse employee. He works all the overtime he can to pay his bills and make ends meet. He lives in a rented two bedroom one bath apartment with his daughter summer. He drives an old beat up Jeep that is nearly falling apart, to his job every day. At the very beginning of the story Ron had become quite depressed from his past and from the way his future looked. He was very nearly at the end and he was contemplating ending his life. He knew that he had a young daughter that he needed to take care of, but he was in such despair and he was experiencing such hopelessness, it did not matter to him and his thinking at that time was his daughter would be much better off without him. As the story progresses a little further, he was just about to commit suicide, when a visitor came to intervene and prevent Ron from doing that. Ron could see that this being was not from this planet. He was dressed in a long pastel blue robe with a gold satchel tied at his waist, and a bright white aura surrounded this being. He spoke to Ron, and told him that his name was infinite. The first couple of chapters Ron has long talks...
