Niccolo Paganini (1782-1840) belongs to most famous violonists of all the periods. Except of violins he was able to play the mandolin and guitar as well. He composed for all instruments. I focused on compositions called 43 Ghiribizzi that were in origin devoted to guitar. Its a short list of 43 tunes that match the name. Ghiribizzi name can be translated as whims. So compositions are short and whimsy. So no serious issues. So much joy in playing these whimsical piece. The are in the book songs without text.
