By Newton Newton

Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 462 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. Excerpt from The Saloon Keepers Companion, and Book of Reference, for Saloon Keepers, Proprietors of Hotels, and Sporting Men. Knowing that a demand has long been felt for a book of this kind the publishers have at length decided, notwithstanding the many difficulties in the way, and the great expense of preparation, to put it in press - trusting to the generous response of the saloon keepers of the country to sustain them. The book is divided into four parts. Part First, - Jokes and stories, containing an endless amount of fun for leisure reading. Part Second, - Contains the latest rules and directions for playing one hundred different games, including all the most popular games of cards, dice, billiards, etc. This is Hoyle revised and improved, and the laws laid down for the different games are intended to cover all disputed points, and cannot fail to be a benefit to all saloon keepers. Part Third, - Law Department, or Every Saloon Keeper His Own Lawyer and Business Man. This part of the book contains advice to the saloon keeper on all points of law...
