

Crescent Moon

By Delilah Devlin

Amazon Publishing, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 206 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. From ancient Egypt to present-day New Orleans, a woman of exceptional strength is called to protect against an unspeakable evil . . . and to experience an unforgettable seduction. Khepri still isn't used to being The God's Wife. The daughter of a common farmer, she's more comfortable being friends with servants than employing a whole team of them. Lately she's had doubts about the role she's been thrust into. She's had yearnings for another sort of life, one where she's loved intimately, rather than only adored from afar. When a powerful man lures her away from her temple, she's thrilled at the chance for an adventure. Her adventure quickly becomes a nightmare when the handsome vizier mummifies her alive, until she awakens in a distant future. Alone and needing a guide in this strange and garish new world, she turns to the troubled man who set her free . . . When New Orleans police detective Justin Henry Boucher is called to the Garden Museum to investigate stolen Egyptian artifacts, it's not...
