After years of faking happiness, never did Ashleigh think her secrets would come back to haunt her. On the day that most women are their happiest she's staring in the eyes of the man she plans to promise forever and the man she will love forever. Should she go down the road she is certain of or down the road that may or may not contain her happiness? Though Harlem may be the obvious choice, all isn't right in his chaotic world. Harlem is carrying around a secret that is sure to send Ashleigh running for the hills. With more money, power and drama than he knows what to do with, Harlem finds himself with his hands full trying to juggle it all. Amanda and Houston are both guarding their heart from the hurt they believe is inevitable. Little do they know their trouble isn't in each other, it's in those lurking in the shadows. No one wants to see Houston and Amanda together and will do anything to keep them apart. Will these couples finally get their happily ever...
